

Electroless Nickel Plating Technician

Role and Responsibilities:

Responsible for all aspects of operating an electroless nickel plating line. The candidate must be able to accurately follow written procedures, adjust bath chemistry, and be able to inspect raw and finished product using a variety of inspection methods and equipment

- Prepare parts for nickel plating
- Inspect parts after nickel plating
- Maintain a clean and safe work environment in the plating shop
- Set, start, and shut down nickel plating line
- Works with chemical laboratory to maintain solution parameters
- Assist in the maintenance of the plating tanks
- Work to ensure safe practices and company policies and procedures are being followed
- Work closely with department and production supervisors to coordinate and schedule priorities on the line
- Reads and accurately interpret shop paperwork, provides feedback on issues and changes
- Performs other assigned duties to achieve the goals of the department and company

Qualifications Requirements:

A successful candidate must be a team-oriented person with good communication skills. A successful candidate must be able to excel at the following:

- Ability to work accurately in a fast-paced environment
- Must be able to communicate verbally, read and write in English
- Show a high level of job-related knowledge
- Show a high level of quality
- Follows set attendance/punctuality policies
- Takes initiative
- Shows good communication and listening skills
- Is dependable

Preferred Skills:

- Strong Chemistry background
- Strong Mathematic background
- Good Organizational skills
- Plating/Metal Finishing experience

Physical Demands:

- The ability to lift up to 50 pounds
- Ability to wear PPE

Work Environment:

The work environment is a fast paced, manufacturing job-shop. A variety of chemical baths are used on the manufacturing floor on a daily basis and proper care and focus must be taken to ensure safety. Communication and teamwork are highly valued within the company as well as the push for continual improvement.

Electroless Nickel Plating Technician

Other Requirements:

- Preferred minimum of six-months experience in manufacturing
- Ability to work overtime as necessary

Salary:

Wages are based upon previous experience and education. Full Benefits available including: 401k, health insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, life insurance, short term and long-term disability, paid holidays and Paid Time Off (PTO).

About Bales Metal Surface Solutions:

Since 1978, Bales Metal Surface Solutions has been providing high quality polishing and plating services for the metalworking industry worldwide. For more information, please visit our website at BalesUSA.com.

Job Type:

Full-time